

Sovereign

Aryn Michelle Calhoun 2022

Verse 1

Ever since the fall we've been sewing fig leaves
Covering our shame with remedies that fail and fade away
Forgetting that you're holy, you're the judge of all things
Turned a river to blood and rained down fire
The God of the flood whose justice is righteous

CHORUS

But everyone is doing what is right in their own eyes
We honor you with lip service deny you with our lives
We want the freedom but none of the consequence
Oh won't you save us from ourselves 'cause we need a sovereign

Interlude

Verse 2

From the mountaintop you set the standard in stone
We could never live up to it on our own
Instead of leaning on you we're making statues of gold
We're gonna do it our way and make strange fire
How could you delight in such a tainted sacrifice

CHORUS

We need a sovereign
